A. Modification of the travel package

The Organizer reserves the right to unilaterally adjust the terms of the agreement, other than the price, if such amendment is not important. Communication to the traveller is made in a clear and precise way through a durable medium, such as the e-mail.

Before departure, the organizer or trader who needs to significantly amend the main features of the travel package as referred to in Article 34, paragraph 1, letter a), or is not able to satisfy the specific requests referred to in Article 36, paragraph 5, letter a), or proposes to increase the price of the package by more than 8%, gives immediate notice in writing - also by e-mail - to the traveller, specifying the type of variation and the price alteration that it follows.

The traveller may, within 2 (two) working days from the communication of the amendment by the organizer / trader, accept the proposed modification, or withdraw from the agreement without paying withdrawal costs and request the refund of the amounts already paid, such refund to take place without inexcusable delay, and in any case, within fourteen days from the withdrawal from the agreement. Lacking any express communication within the aforementioned term, the proposal of the organizer is considered accepted.

B. Withdrawal of the Traveller

In the event of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances occurring at the place of destination or in its immediate surrounding area and having a substantial impact on the execution of the package or on the transport of travellers towards the destination, the traveller has the right to withdraw from the agreement before using the package, without paying withdrawal costs, and to the full refund of the payments done for the package, but is not entitled to additional compensation.

If it is suddenly impossible for the traveller to use the package, he/she does not have the right to withdraw without penalties, the traveller being able to guarantee himself against the economic risk connected to such case of withdrawal from the contract by executing a specific insurance policy. Except as for the cases explicitly indicated in this article, the traveller will have the right to withdraw from the agreement at any time before the beginning of the trip, without prejudice to the obligation to pay the costs / cancellation fees as indicated below - regardless of the down payment referred to in art. 6 - in addition to the individual cost of file management. In the case of pre-established groups, these amounts will be agreed from time to time upon signature of the agreement.

C. Withdrawal penalties

In case of withdrawal from the travel agreement, the traveller is always required to pay the management fee for the file, equal to € 30 per person.

Pursuant to art. 41, comma 2, of the Code of Tourism, the following penalties are agreed in case of withdrawal (the day of cancellation is excluded, and instead the day of departure is included):

- 20% up to 30 days prior to departure date
- 25% from 29 to 21 days prior to departure date
- 50% from 20 to 14 days prior to departure date
- 80% from 13 to 6 days prior to departure date
- 100% from 5 days prior to departure date and no-show

Withdrawal from bike and barge tours:

- 20% up to 84 days prior to departure date
- 40% from 83 to 42 days prior to departure date
- 60% from 41 to 28 days prior to departure date
- 90% from 27 to 1 days prior to departure date
- 100% no-show

Such amounts must be paid also by the persons who cannot carry out the trip due to lack or irregularity of the expatriation documents required. If the traveller does not show up at the booked structure / boat, or decides to interrupt the trip or the sojourn already started, no refund shall be granted.

The cancellation of the trip shall be valid only if it is communicated in writing.

With regard to packages with flight or train trip included: if the air / rail ticket has already been issued, the penalty must be calculated on the total cost of the holiday, by deducting the cost of the ticket, which will be charged in full.

D. Cancellation by the organizer

The organizer may withdraw from the travel package contract and offer the traveller the full refund of the payments done for the package, but he is not required to pay additional compensation if: (I) the number of persons registered in the package is lower than the minimum agreed in the contract and the organizer communicates to the traveller the withdrawal from the agreement within the deadline set in the agreement, and in any case no later than twenty days before the beginning of the package in case of trips lasting more than six days, than seven days before the start of the package, for trips lasting two to six days, than forty eight hours before the beginning of the package, in the case of trips lasting less than two days.

(II) the organizer is not able to implement the agreement due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances and communicates the withdrawal to the traveller without undue delay, before the beginning of the package. For cancellations other than those referred to in the previous paragraph, the organizer who cancels, will return to the traveller, through the travel agent, a sum equal to twice the amount paid and actually collected by the organizer. The amount representing the refund will never be higher than twice the amount for which, up to date, the traveller would be debtor according to the provisions of this article concerning penalty for withdrawal, if he were to cancel.

E. Withdrawal for distance contracts

Pursuant to art. 41, paragraph 7, of the Code of Tourism, we inform you that in the distance contracts or in off-premises contracts (as defined by article 45 of the Legislative Decree 206/2005 - Consumer Code), the traveller has right to withdraw from the package travel contract within a period of five days from the date in which it receives the booking confirmation, without penalty and without giving any reason.

For bookings made in the 20 days prior to departure, the right of cancellation referred to in this paragraph will only be granted if the Traveller has not benefited from a significantly reduced offer compared to the current ones (as shown in the documentation provided in the pre-contractual phase). Furthermore, notwithstanding the exclusion of the application of penalties, in the event of exercising the right of cancellation - where applicable - with regard to distance bookings in the 20 days prior to departure, the Traveller may be required to pay the Organizer any amounts already paid by the latter for the booked package (e.g. flight booking).

9. CHANGE OF BOOKING

For each and every request for amendment to the already accepted booking a fee of € 30 per person will be due, to cover the operational costs. Changes requested by the traveller for booking already accepted do not oblige the organizer in cases in which such requests cannot be satisfied.

10. CHANGES AFTER THE DEPARTURE

If, after the departure, the organizer is unable to provide for any reason whatsoever an essential part of the services included in the contract, and this does not depend on a specific circumstance due to the traveller, the organizer will have to provide for the traveller alternative solutions, without any price supplements, or must reimburse him within the limits of the difference between the originally forecasted services and those performed.

If no alternative solution is possible, or the solution provided for by the organizer is rejected by the traveller for proven and justified reasons, the organizer will provide without any surcharge, transport means equivalent to the one provided for the return to the place of departure or to the different place agreed upon, compatibly with the availability of the vehicle and of the seat and will reimburse him to the extent of the difference between the cost of the services forecasted and that of the services performed up to the time of early return.

11. SUBSTITUTIONS

The renouncing traveller can be substituted by another person as long as:

- the organizer is informed in writing at least 7 days before the date fixed for departure by receiving simultaneously the personal information of the incoming party;
- the substitute fulfils all the conditions for the use of the service (pursuant to Article 38 of the Code of Tourism) and in particular the requirements relating to the passport, visas and health certificates;
- the same services or other replacing services can be provided following the substitution;
- the organizer is reimbursed of all the additional expenses incurred for proceeding with the substitution, to the extent calculated to the assignor before the assignment.

The assignor and the assignee are jointly liable for the payment of the balance of the price as well as the amounts referred to in letter d) of this article.

12. OBLIGATIONS OF THE TRAVELLERS

During the negotiations and in any case before the signature of the agreement, Italian citizens are provided in writing with general information - updated as of the date of communication of the estimate - concerning health obligations and the documentation necessary for expatriation.

Foreign citizens will find such information through their diplomatic representations located in Italy and / or the respective official government information channels. In any case, before departure, travellers will check the update with the competent Authorities and shall comply with such updates before the trip. In the absence of such verification, no liability for the missed departure of one or more travellers may be attributed to the intermediary or to the organizer.

Passengers must be equipped with an individual passport or other document valid for all countries of the tour, as well as with transit and stay visas and health certificates that may be required. They must also comply with the rules of normal prudence and diligence and with the specific rules in force in the countries of destination of the travel, with all information provided to them by the organizer, as well as with the regulation and with administrative or legislative provisions relating to the travel package.

In order to evaluate the social / political situation, health safety and other useful information concerning the destination countries and, therefore, the actual usability of the services purchased or to be purchased, the traveller will have the burden of obtaining the official information of a general nature at the competent Authorities.

Such information is not contained in the catalogues and / or in the documentation provided by the organizer since they contain general descriptive information as indicated in art. 34 Code of Tourism and not information which changes periodically. Such information must therefore be obtained by the traveller. If, at the booking date, the chosen destination is not recommended by the institutional information channels for security reasons, the traveller who subsequently exercises the right of withdrawal cannot appeal to the default of the contractual cause connected to the security conditions of the country, for the purposes of the exemption or reduction of the indemnification request for the withdrawal exercised.

The traveller will also communicate in writing to the organizer, at the time of booking, the particular personal requests that may be subject of specific agreements on travel arrangements, provided that, it is possible to implement them. The traveller is always required to inform the trader and the organizer of any special needs or conditions (including but not limited to, pregnancy, food intolerance, disability) and to explicitly specify the request for related personalized services.

The traveller will be liable for any and all damages that the organizer or trader should suffer due to the breach of the traveller's obligations under this agreement.

Pursuant to art. 51 quinquies, second paragraph of the Code of Tourism, the traveller is obliged to provide the organizer or trader with all documents, information and elements in its possession, useful for the exercise by the trader of the right of subrogation towards third parties liable for the event which has generated damages, indemnity, price reduction or other remedy provided by the organizer or trader in favour of the traveller. The traveller is liable towards the organizer or the trader for any damage caused to the right of subrogation.

13. HOSPITALITY CLASSIFICATION

The official classification of hotel facilities is provided in the catalogue or in other informative material only on the basis of the express and formal indications of the competent authorities of the country where the service is provided. In the absence of official classifications recognized by the competent Public Authorities of the countries also members of the EU to whom the service refers, the organizer reserves the right to provide in the catalogue its own description of the accommodation, such as to allow an evaluation and consequent acceptance of the accommodation by the traveller.

14. LIABILITY REGIME

The organizer is liable for the execution of the travel services provided for in the travel package contract, regardless of whether these travel services are to be provided by the organizer himself, by his auxiliaries or persons appointed by the organizer when acting in the exercise of their functions, by third parties with which it collaborates or by other travel service providers, pursuant to art. 1228 of the Italian Civil Code. The trader via which the travel package has been booked is not liable, under any circumstances, of the obligations arising from the organization of the trip, but is solely liable for the obligations arising from its qualification as an intermediary. If one of the travel services is not performed according to the travel package contract, the organizer shall remedy to the lack of conformity, taking into consideration the extent of the lack of conformity and the value of the travel services affected by the defect, unless such remedy is impossible or excessively burdensome. If the organizer does not remedy the defect, the traveller is entitled to a reduction of the price as well as to a compensation for the damage he has suffered as a result of the lack of conformity, unless the organizer demonstrates that the lack of conformity:

(I) is attributable to the traveller or to a third party which does not participate in the provision of travel services; or (II) is unavoidable or unpredictable or is due to extraordinary and unavoidable circumstances. If the organizer does not remedy the lack of conformity within a reasonable period established by the traveller in his complaint, the traveller can personally remedy the defect and request refund of necessary, reasonable and documented expenses. If a lack of conformity constitutes an important non-fulfilment and the organizer has not remedied after the timely claim carried out by the traveller, in consideration to the extent and the characteristics of the package, the traveller can terminate the contract with immediate effect, or ask - if necessary - a price reduction, besides any compensation of damages.

However, the exemptions pursuant to art. 43 paragraphs 1 and 3 of the Code of Tourism shall apply for cases in which, the failure or incorrect execution of the contract is attributable to the traveller or is due to an unpredictable or inevitable act of a third party, unrelated to the provision of services, or is due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances.

15. LIMITS OF REDRESS

The compensation pursuant to art. 43 of the Code of Tourism and the related expiration periods, are governed by the provisions provided for therein and in any case within the established limits, by the International Conventions governing the services that are included in the travel package, as well as by articles 1783 and 1784 of the Italian Civil Code.

The right to the price reduction or to the compensation for damages due to the variations of the travel package contract or of the replacement package expires in two years starting from the date of the traveller's return to the place of departure. The right of compensation for personal injury expires in three years from the date of return of the traveller to the place of departure or in the longer period provided for compensation of personal injury by the provisions governing the services included in the package.

The maximum limit that can be reimbursed is 3 times the total price of the package; this limitation does not apply to cases of personal injury, and to damage caused with intent and / or due to the fault of the organizer or trader.

16. OBLIGATION OF ASSISTANCE

The organizer is required to provide assistance to the traveller as provided for by art. 45 of the Code of Tourism, in particular by providing information on health services, local authorities and consular assistance. The organizer can demand payment of a reasonable price for such assistance if the problem underlying the need for assistance is intentionally caused by the traveller or by his own fault.

17. CLAIMS AND COMPLAINTS

Any failure in the performance of the contract must be challenged by the traveller to the organizer - either directly or through the trader - promptly (taking into account the circumstances) and during the travel so that the organizer, its local representative or the tourist guide can promptly remedy it. If not challenged, the compensation for damages will be reduced or excluded pursuant to art. 1227 of the Italian Civil Code. For the purpose of observance of the terms or periods of expiration of the right, the date on which the trader receives messages, requests or complaints as per the previous paragraph, is considered as the date of receipt also for the organizer.

18. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION MEANS

Pursuant to and for the purposes of art. 67 of the Code of Tourism, the organizer may propose to the traveller - in the estimate, in the documentation, on its own website or in other forms - alternative means of resolution of the disputes that arose. In such case, the organizer will indicate the type of alternative resolution proposed and the effects that such choice entails.

19. PROTECTION IN CASE OF INSOLVENCY OR FAILURE (Article 47 Code of Tourism)

Pursuant to art. 47, paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Code of Tourism, the contracts of organized travel are supported by suitable insurance policies or bank guarantees, which, for trips to any country (including Italy), ensure, in cases of insolvency or bankruptcy of the trader or organizer, the refund of the price paid for the purchase of the package and the immediate return of the traveller in the event that the package includes the transportation of the traveller, as well as, if necessary, the payment of food and accommodation before return.

The purchasers of the travel package sold pursuant to this agreement enjoy the guarantees referred to in art. 47 of the Code of Tourism through the adhesion of Girolibero srl to the travel guarantee fund Il Salvagente Soc. Coop. a r.l. based in Turin, Corso Regio Parco 15 (www.ilsalvagente.info), whose contact details have been brought to the knowledge of the traveller.

ADDENDUM OF THE GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT FOR THE SALE OF INDIVIDUAL TRAVEL SERVICES

A) REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Contracts relating only to the offer of the transport service, or the holiday, or any other separate travel service, can't be configured as a case of travel organization or travel package, hence do not enjoy the protections offered by the Directive (EU) 2015 / 2302 and of the Code of Tourism (Articles from 32 to 51 nonies) and are governed by the specific provisions related to the sale of the single service subject of the contract. The trader who undertakes to procure a disaggregated travel service to third parties, also through internet, is required to issue to the traveller the documents relating to this service, which illustrate the sum paid for the service and cannot, in any way, be considered as an organizer.

B) CONTRACT CONDITIONS

To such agreements relating only to the offer of the transport service, or the holiday, or any other separate travel service, the following clauses of the general terms and conditions of sale contract for the above mentioned travel packages are also applicable: art. 5 (bookings); art. 6 (payments), art. 7 (price); art. 12 (obligations of the travellers); art. 15 (limits of redress), art. 17 (claims and complaints). The application of these clauses does not cause the classification of the relative agreement as a type of travel package. The wording of the aforementioned clauses relating to the travel package contract, should therefore be understood with reference to the corresponding figures of the contract for the sale of individual travel services.

For group tours, failure to comply with this rule may cause the exclusion during the holiday at the discretion of the tourist guide.

BICYCLES

Each participant will receive a bicycle with a padlock. The traveller will be obliged to use and keep this bicycle carefully for the duration of the holiday, in order to return it free of damage and in the same condition in which he/she has received it, except as for normal wear and tear.

Following receipt of such revocation, Girolibero undertakes, within a reasonable period of time, to remove the Images from its own site and/or other social channels or portals related to it, and to withdraw them from any physical spaces open to the public in which they are published, displayed or reproduced. It is understood that with respect to any printed materials in which such Images have been reproduced and
